The EHRI Portal: a Final Spurt

17/07/2014

One of the most important outcomes of the EHRI project will be an online portal offering researchers and the interested public access to in-depth information on Holocaust related archives and documentation. The EHRI portal is the culmination of much of the research undertaken in EHRI, and after almost four years of intense work, it is now in the final stages of development. Reto Speck (KCL and NIOD) is co-ordinating the development of the EHRI portal; here he provides an overview of its aims and progress.

CfP: EHRI Workshop: Early Attempts at the Historical Documentation of the Holocaust

17/06/2014

International Workshop within the Framework of the European Holocaust Research Infrastructure (EHRI), supported by the European Commission.

Jewish Museum in Prague, October 21-23, 2014

EHRI would like to invite you to an international workshop on Early Attempts at the Historical Documentation of the Holocaust, to be held at the Jewish Museum in Prague, Czech Republic on October 21-23, 2014.

In November 2012, EHRI organised a first international workshop on early documentation of the Holocaust which was, to our knowledge, the first comparative research meeting on the topic. The fascinating workshop made it clear that more research and discussion is needed.

Wendy Lower at EHRI Summer School in Holocaust Studies

15/07/2014

In the second week of the EHRI Summer School Amsterdam, Dr. Wendy Lower gave a lecture to the twelve trainees on "German Women and the Holocaust". She also joined them for an excursion and stayed to listen to the trainees' presentations about their own research.

Dr. Wendy Lower is the John K. Roth Professor of History at Claremont McKenna College, USA and director of the Center for Human Rights at the Claremont Colleges. Lower's latest book Hitler's Furies: German Women in the Nazi Killing Fields, was a finalist for the U.S. National Book Award and has been translated into many languages.

People in EHRI: Linda Reijnhoudt

17/07/2014

Member of EHRI Work Package 17 (Standards and Guidelines) and 19 (Data Integration Infrastructure)

Developer at DANS (Data Archiving and Networked Services), the Netherlands

My first involvement with EHRI was on standards and guidelines, and how to translate those into a datamodel. The first step of getting used to the terminology took a while, because although I work at a digital archive (DANS), I had never set foot in an actual archive or spent time with a card catalogue.

International EHRI Conference: Holocaust Documentation in Eastern Europe

08/05/2014

19-21 May, 2014. Krakow, Poland

'In particular we would like to see the expansion of EHRI's activities and the widening of its partnership in Eastern Europe. All this of course in order to include new material on the Holocaust and enable an integrated approach to the history of the Holocaust as a European phenomenon.' Robert-Jan Smits, Director-General of Research and Innovation, European Commission, at the conference.
